

FCCLA PROMISE AWARD

NOTE: A completed award application and three (3) short letters of recommendation (see below) are needed to nominate a member for this award.

What is a Promise?

A promise is an indication of future success and/or grounds for expectation of success, improvement or excellence.

What is the intent of the Promise Award?

The intent of the Promise Award is to honor a Colorado FCCLA member from grades 9-12 who has shown promising potential in supporting the mission of FCCLA. The winner of this award should be a member who has led her or his chapter, community and or district and state with her or his commitment and inspiration over the past year or years. This award will be presented at the annual State Leadership Conference to ONE deserving FCCLA member.

Who can nominate a promising FCCLA member?

Any one of the following people can nominate a promising FCCLA member:

- Adviser
- Fellow FCCLA member
- District consultant
- School personnel

How can a promising member be nominated?

1. Complete an Application for FCCLA Promise Award (be sure all questions and requirements are filled in);

and
2. Secure three (3) letters of recommendation:
  - One from an adviser
  - One from a fellow chapter member
  - One from another person (non-family member)

What is the due date for nominations?

The Application for FCCLA Promise Award and three letters of recommendation are due February 15.
Send completed applications to:

Colorado FCCLA
9101 East Lowry Blvd.
Denver, CO 80230-6011

What chapter or community activities has the FCCLA member you are nominating been involved with during the last year?

Please list any offices, chairs or other leadership positions held by the nominated FCCLA member.